Spring is in the air! It's hard to believe the academic school year will be coming to a close in just two short months. The children have grown so much since the beginning of the school year. Just since Christmas, it appears they have all grown by inches! Cherish this time with your little ones. They really do grow up so fast.

Our Providence School Headmaster, Mr. Barfield, and I would like to extend our sincere appreciation to you, our PCCDC parents, for your continued understanding and support this school year. We could not have anticipated that the building delay would be as lengthy as it has been. The extremely active hurricane season of 2004 created our greatest delay and challenge in completing our building. As I shared with you in a past article, roofing shingles have been difficult to come by due to the numerous roofing repairs necessitated by the hurricane damage throughout the state of Florida. The lack of shingles for our building has delayed the completion of the interior of our new building by four months. We are excited, however, at the progress that has been made as of late. It's coming along quite nicely and we look forward to announcing a moving date in the near future.

We are looking forward to an exciting spring season at PCCDC! On behalf of the staff of Providence Child Care Development Center, I pray that you all have a blessed Easter as we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus.
