Don’t be the GIRL who…
…Has a body double wearing the same dress.
(Ask around, show people pictures of your dress, post the dress on the 2018 Providence Prom Facebook page, or do whatever you have to so you won’t be one of three people wearing the same dress.)
…Doesn’t know how to act the part.
(The dress, shoes, and make-up only look good on a girl who knows how to bring it all together with the walk, talk, and attitude of a real lady. Knees together, shoulders back, glamour on!)

Don’t be the GUY who…
…Comes with one girl and leaves with another.
(Even if you have that much swagger, keep it under wraps for prom night and be the debonair gentleman the girls will love even more.
…Doesn’t know how to wear a tuxedo.
(No saggy drawers on prom night!)

Don’t be the Couple that…
…Doesn’t finish paying for their share of the limo cost.
(For starters, it’s tacky! But it’s also inconsiderate, and it puts everyone in the car at risk of not securing their limo.)
… Gets into a big fight and breaks up.
(Everyone is spending a lot of time and money on prom night. Leave the drama and disagreements home for the night.)
…Brings liquor or alcohol to the prom.
(It’s illegal. Get caught, get arrested. End of story!)

Underage drinking is when anyone under the minimum legal drinking age of 21 drinks alcohol and remains a risk that attracts many developing adolescents and teens. When young people try alcohol, they often don’t realize the damaging effects that drinking can have on their own lives, their families, and their communities. Underage drinking is a widespread public health problem that poses many risks. Of course, another very serious reason not to drink is that possession and purchase of alcohol by anyone under age 21 is now illegal in every state. States made underage drinking illegal for good reason:

• Alcohol and drug use can lead to a criminal record in several ways. The actions teens take under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs are more likely to lead to criminal conduct.
• A slight altercation can turn into a brawl with physical harm or property damage, a romantic evening can turn into a rape or a charge of rape, and a car crash can cause injury or death.
• Legal consequences can include fines, restitution, victim payments, community service, probation, and incarceration.
• Getting caught buying or possessing alcohol/drugs alone can have serious negative lifelong consequences because it is a violation of the law.
• An arrest, prosecution, or conviction for attempted purchase or possession of alcohol/drugs will be expensive and embarrassing, will disappoint family and friends, perhaps permanently altering their opinion of a young person’s character, will send a dangerous message to younger children, and may lead to suspension or expulsion from a job, a team, or a school.
• In many cases, alcohol has ruined a young person’s plans and dreams for life.
This Prom Pledge sheet for all Providence and non-Providence students must be turned in to Mrs. McGill to attend prom. Please turn in by Friday, March 9.

Prom Pledge

I want my prom to be a night I’ll remember for the rest of my life – surrounded by my best friends and full of music, dancing, and fun.

I don’t want anything to get in the way of those memories.
I pledge to enjoy every minute sober and to encourage my friends to do the same.
I will not ride in a car with someone who has been drinking or using other drugs.
I will ask my friends to take this pledge as well.
