WHAT A GLORIOUS FEELING!

SINGIN' IN THE RAIN

“We continue to be blown away by the talent level of the students! Just like a true Broadway production.”

– Tracy Morgan, Jacksonville, FL

Grab your umbrella and join us for Providence School's presentation of the beloved Hollywood classic, Singin' in the Rain. Featuring over 80 talented cast and crew, this family friendly favorite is sure to put a smile on your face! Audiences will be swept away to 1927 vintage Hollywood with musical classics like “Good Morning”, “Make ‘em Laugh”, “You Were Meant for Me”, and of course the title song, “Singin’ in the Rain”. Put on your favorite 1920’s attire and head to Providence School to catch one of the TWO performances, or BOTH! With brand new stunning costumes by Beverly Goldstein, beautiful set pieces designed by Scott Doughty, and show-stopping dance numbers choreographed by Stephanie Riner, “Singin’ In the Rain” at Providence School is surely not to be missed. Get your tickets now and we’ll see you at the show!

Be sure to arrive early this year, as our seating has changed to general admission!
Doors open at 6 PM both nights, and SEATS ARE FIRST COME, FIRST SERVE.
Your printed receipt will serve as your ticket. Please bring it to the show.
