Component Six - Resume

- Many colleges today are requiring that students not only fill out the application and write an essay, but also that they submit a resume, to show job experience, academic success, and extracurricular activities, etc.
- If you feel you do not have anything to place on a resume, now is the time. Complete and internship this summer, gain employment, serve at a non-profit, publish an editorial piece etc. Also, next year sign up for a club or try a new sport. This is your final chance to make high school the best possible experience ever!

7

Component Seven Parent/Student Survey Forms

- These two surveys assist guidance in writing recommendation letters as well as help guide you to start the college choice process.
- It is so difficult for some parents to meet this deadline, so start pushing them to complete now!

8

Component Ten – College Visits

If you visit a college this summer, please save one of the following for proof for the college project.

1. A brochure with your tour guide's signature
2. Print out the e-mail showing confirmation of the scheduled tour (or screen shot).

9

Component Twelve – College Presentation

- You will sign up to present one of your three colleges to the class in a 3-4 minute presentation. No more than two presentations of the same university can be presented in one section.
- Must use tools which can include a PowerPoint presentation, a poster or other creative devices. Dressing in school colors or paraphernalia is highly recommended.
- Please do not stand up and just report five facts about the school. Show a video, sing the fight song, bring in food that is indicative to that state or school EX) Gator Tail for UGA! In other words, make this fun for the class! We will present these the week the college project is due.

Acceptance and Scholarship Letters

You will print out each acceptance letter, whether e-mailed or snail mailed as well as every scholarship letter making a copy for your folder at the back of the classroom. These documents will be vital at the end of the year when creating your profiles and slide show! Each Friday I will ask you to take a moment at the beginning of class to print any of these letters you have received and place them in your folder!
